A speech for Mother Earth.

We are all human beings.
All people, You, me, our neighbors.
No matter where You live in this world,
if it is in Africa or South-America,
if it is in Asia or Europe, Australia or North-America,
we are all sisters and brothers in humanity.

All people of the world.
Whether rich or poor,
whether color, religion, culture or political conviction,
we are all residents on this one planet,
our home - Mother Earth.

The time is now for us to carry her
As she has carried and provided us through all times.
It is time for us as the human race to give something in return.
We really don’t want to give our next generations
a planet in such a condition that there will not be any hope for survival?
If we all, each and one of us go deep inside ourselves and in our heart are honest towards ourselves:
I do not think, I am sure that the answer would be a universal NO, we do not want this.

In our heart we want peace, happiness, love and a healthy planet. We all hunger for it. This I think is a universal wish, but still this wish is hidden and also forgot.
Caused by our own development and hunger for higher standard of living.
And the direction of our development and hunger is soon, very soon going to destroy both us and our planet.
We cannot stop the development but we can change its direction,
And we can change our ways.

To make this happen, to make humanity and Mother Earth smile again, we must unite in a universal one.
We must put politics, religion, economy and envy away, together with our ego.
Then each and every one of us will be able to go inside ourselves and find the universal force called love.
When we find love towards ourselves we will be able to love what is around us both people and nature.

And we must stop our war against nature.
Mother Earth is crying
She is shiverering in fear of loosing all her entrails.
As we dig and drill to get hold of what we think is right towards a higher standard of living.
Mother Earth is crying
and soon she will not have any tears left,
And then it will be to late.
Time has come to unite and stand together in one last universal battle.

A battle without guns and weapons
A battle without rage, hate and killing
A battle without power as a goal.

In this last battle our only “weapon” is love.
Love towards humanity, Love towards Mother Earth
Love towards our coming generations.
Please, I ask You please each and every one of you around the world, take each other hands lift them high and make a prayer for our continuing existence while The World Drum sings her song and we feel her heartbeat

It is the heartbeat of Mother Earth
It is our heartbeat,
from each and every one all over the world
It is the heartbeat of life itself.
Let us make this heartbeat be able to continue.
